Lock up or you'll be the next target

POLICE have stepped up patrols in Haverhill after a spate of night-time house burglaries which have rocked the town during this summer's hot weather.

At the beginning of August, Inspector Peter Ferrie said there had been eight burglaries over the previous six weeks.

Then between August 3 and August 26, there have been a further 10 burglaries plus two attempts to enter homes overnight.

In all but one case, it was clear that intruders had found their way in through an insecure downstairs window or door.

Inspector Mel Leaman said that patrols had been increased across the whole town in a bid to try and catch burglars in the act.

However, when officers took to the streets on Saturday night they were dismayed to discover that residents were still leaving

Inspector Leaman said: "There was a tremendous amount of open windows in Haverhill that night.

"You could have done 10 or 15 burglaries on that night alone. And they were ground floor windows."

The inspector said that carelessly leaving windows and doors unlocked – and even wide open – is making it easy for people to break in.

He said: "I have been out to burglaries and it has such an amazing impact on residents – people need to help themselves by shutting the windows and doors."

A beige Mercedes, cash, jewellery, laptops and a Kindle are among the items that have been stolen in the burglaries during the summer.

■ Alexander Hockett, of Elmond Place, Haverhill, was arrested on Tuesday and charged with a burglary at a property in Beaumont Vale where a handbag, two wallets containing bank cards and £180 in cash were taken between August 20 and August 23.

Hockett, 32, appeared at Bury Magistrates Court yesterday.

He has been remanded in custody and will be next appear at Ipswich Crown Court on September 10.

Band tops the charts with their debut single

TOP OF THE POPS: The band want to take bigger steps. Vote for them in the chart at www.cambridge105.fm/unsignedchart

AN UNSIGNED punk band from Haverhill have had a taste of success. Flux 32 stormed to the top of the Cambridge 105 unsigned chart with debut single What If. They spent one week between August 14 and 21 in the number one spot and are currently at number two.

The band, which consists of vocalist Marty Sewell, drummer Michael Jaimeson, Shane and Graham Woodley on guitar and Dave Brittain on bass, worked on their song for six months before recording it at Crooks Hall Studio in Stoke by Clare. Now, they have written a full set of original music and plan to gig around the area and get their faces known. Flux 32 have also appeared on Star Radio, as well as being guests on some Cambridge 105 shows. Dave said: "We are now looking to further promote our single and the band, hoping to get more radio airplay and get out and play live." Visit www.flux32.com for more.

Survey is 'skewed' for the high street

A SURVEY that could decide the fate of Haverhill's high street has come under fire.

Suffolk County Council urged the community to take part in their online survey and voice their opinion on what they would like to see in the high street.

But a post on a community message board has revealed that web-savvy surveyors have found a way to fill out questions twice - meaning the end result could be an unfair one.

The responses to questions including, "what is your view on parking in the town centre" and "what is your view on bus and taxi services to the town centre" will be carried forward to a workshop.

Information from this session will then be used to present options for the future - including pedestrianisation and improved access for the town centre.

Haverhill Town Council's town clerk Will Austin has said that this glitch will lead to a false representation of what the town's residents actually want to see.

He said: "There are people who would like their view point to be entered more than once. People are now attempting to complete this survey again and it's a bit of a worry."

Mr Austin said that the Haverhill Town Council spent time completing a face to face survey with more than 700 people.

Seventy per cent of participants voted in favour of pedestrianisation of the high street between 10am and 4pm every day.

A spokeswoman for Suffolk County Council said that they are aware of the online survey issue and are currently looking into the specifics.

She said: "There are also a number of other ways we are engaging with the public, including encouraging residents and business owners to have direct conversations with their local councillors."

"Residents and business owners have also had letters dropped through their doors locally."

Mr Austin said that the future of the high street is what is important, and the steps taken to make the decision must be fair.

He said: "They will take their survey into account and if it has been undermined it will give a skewed view of the community feelings about the future of the high street."

The survey is open for completion until September 23 - responses received before September 5 will be used in the workshop on September 11 and a presentation to the public in the market square on September 14.

This exhibition will give people to see what has been discussed so far and ask their own questions.

You can send your comments directly to the Suffolk Local Transport Plan inbox at suffolk.ltp@suffolk.gov.uk.

Visit www.surveymonkey.com/s/haverhilltowncentre to take part.

Man hid bag of drugs in his buttocks, court told

A BAG of drugs was pulled from a man's buttocks when he was being questioned by police.

Jonathan Tillett, 25, of Landseer Court, Haverhill was stopped by police when he was driving his car on New Street shortly after 9pm on August 4.

Officers said they could smell cannabis on him and he produced a single bag of the drug weighing 0.4 grams.

After further questioning, the 25-year-old produced a second bag weighing 3.1 grams from his buttocks, the court heard.

Jim Dignan, mitigating, said: "He was on his way home to smoke the cannabis. The two bags of cannabis were for his own use and he had paid £20 for them."

Tillett pleaded guilty to a second charge of damage to property after he picked at the paintwork on his prison cell wall.

The Magistrates ordered Tillett to pay £120 for the drugs offence. They chose not to order any damages for the cell wall after accepting Tillett's explanation that the cell wall was already damaged.

Fears as four cats go missing

A PET owner has expressed her worry after four cats have gone missing.

Sheila Gardiner, of Augustus Close, Haverhill, told the Weekly News that four of her beloved animals disappeared last month – all in the space of 10 days.

Two black toms, Ash and Denny, one grey tom, named Tom, and Lucky the tortoiseshell all have collars bearing Sheila's name and address – but she has not seen anything of them since their disappearance.

Sheila currently has seven cats living with her at home, and a few strays that come and go.

She said: "The toms are really big old softies and the female cat is the same. Anyone could pick them up."

"It seems so strange to me that they have all gone missing. I have a lot of cats but these are my personal pets."

The tom cats are all about three years old, and Lucky is 18 months.

First Hundon festival is a great success

A SUCCESSFUL Jubilee celebration in 2012 inspired the people of Hundon to hold their own bank holiday festival.

The sunny weather came right on time for residents to enjoy music, games and demonstrations on Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

The festival made full use of the village's best facilities, including the Rose and Crown pub, the village hall, the school, the pre-school, the church and the cricket field.

Activities in the village hall and field on Sunday included ballet demonstrations and dog shows in the parade ring, stalls, games, and a range of refreshments.

Games, races and a display of vintage cars also took place on the field.

Saturday and Sunday evenings were topped off with a festival of music in the Rose and Crown garden, including performances from a 17-piece group and soul bands. Jumbo and the Jets headlined on the Sunday.

Monday was all for kicking back with a cricket match and barbecue.

The crowds of parents and children encouraged organisers to consider making the festival an annual event in coming years.

SUMMER FUN: Hundon's Summer Festival took place over the bank holiday weekend.

The town's biggest coffee morning

A TEAM of Haverhill businesses are joining forces to take part in the world's biggest coffee morning.

The event is held every year in September by Macmillan Cancer Support and encourages everyone to pop the kettle on and do their bit for the cancer charity.

Debbie Rawlings, of Cuts Unlimited on Queen Street, Haverhill, has rallied around in a bid to beat last year's fundraising total of £925 and recruit for this year's coffee morning.

She said: "We were really busy last year and it was great. This year I'm hoping to raise £1,200 – that's my target."

Debbie has organised this year's coffee morning with Sue Vallis from The Craft Basket, also on Queen Street.

Ellis Interiors, Serenity Foot Care and Jewell Windows have also helped out.

The 2013 coffee morning will be held in Queens Square from 9.30am until 4pm on Friday, September 27.

A step towards £60k HQ target

SCOUTS and Guides across Haverhill are getting closer to raising the money for a much-needed revamp of their headquarters.

The building, in Colne Valley Road, has needed an overhaul for the past 20 years.

More than two decades of hard work from the town's 400 Rainbows, Brownies, Guides, Cubs, Beavers and Scouts have raised £35,000 so far – but the team needs to take the total to £60,000 for the first stage of building to begin.

The Scouts and Guides held a charity bag pack at Sainsbury's, on Haycocks Road, over the bank holiday weekend to keep the fundraising fight in action.

The hours of effort on Saturday, August 24, raised £1,125 towards their total.

DEBRA FOX

Around 25 children took part in the bag pack.

Jill Moss, District Commissioner for Girlguiding in Haverhill, said: "They all really enjoyed it and had smiles on their faces all day."

"People were putting money in the buckets on the tills and when they came to the door they were putting money in again."

"They said how the children were so polite and so well behaved. It was a lovely experience, not just for the money, but to get in the public eye."

The supermarket selected the Scouts and Guides' Headquarters Rebuilding Fund as their charity of the year. The Sainsbury's sponsorship is the first help of this kind they have ever received.

Raymond Faircloth, grocery team leader, said the children got some great feedback from customers on the day.

He said: "Customers who didn't want their bags packed were putting money in to try and get the building up and running."

"It's something for the community that's going to help Haverhill."

Jill said if the new premises goes ahead it will become an ideal place for all of the town's scouts and guides to hold regular sessions, as well as annual camps and outdoor activities.

If successful, the new HQ can also be used by other Scout and Guide troops in the country.

DELIGHT: Pupils receiving their GCSE results at Castle Manor Academy.

GCSE joy across the board for academies

YEAR 11s across Haverhill celebrated GCSE success last week.

Ninety-eight per cent of pupils from Castle Manor Academy achieved five or more A* to C grades across the board, while 52 per cent scored an A* to C in five or more subjects including maths and English.

Their outstanding results show a 12 per cent increase on the academy's success last year.

Acting head of school Vanessa Whitcombe is proud of the best results the academy has ever seen.

She said: "Our year 11 students set themselves a challenge to achieve the best results in the history of the school.

"I knew that these students were capable and am overjoyed at having the opportunity to celebrate with them."

DEBRA FOX

Former head girl Harriet Potter, from Clare, scored eight A*s and five As and plans to attend Hills Road Sixth Form in September.

She said: "I wasn't expecting anything as well as this."

The head of school said: "She's done incredibly well and we knew she would. She's a model learner."

Principal of the Castle Partnership Academy Trust Madeline Vigar also shared her pride at the record-breaking results.

She said: "In the current climate our young people are under close scrutiny about the value of the qualifications they take.

"They should absolutely be proud of what they have achieved and the opportunities they will now have."

Brooke Goodwin, 16, also had her dreams come true after a hard-working summer with National Youth Citizenship.

The 16-year-old said that the weeks working on the programme have improved her confidence and belief that she can succeed in her chosen career of becoming an army medic.

Pupils at Samuel Ward Academy have broken records again with every one of them receiving five A* to C grades in their GCSEs.

Seventy per cent of them also managed to receive five A* to C grades including English and maths.

Vice principal Andy Prestoe celebrated the school's high achievements, and thanked parents and staff for their support during exam time.

He said: "I am incredibly proud of the achievement of our pupils. They have had to work extremely hard and have shown great determination in getting to this point. The progress that they have made is phenomenal. The fact that so many did well in academic subjects like English, maths, languages and science, as well as in creative subjects like art, media and design technology is a real plus for their future employment and college prospects.

Emily Jerram took home 10 results - six A*s and four As - and plans to become a university lecturer or journalist after studying at Long Road Sixth Form.

She said: "I have done as well as I wanted to in the subjects I'm carrying on with."

The 16-year-old, of Munnings Close, will study history, English literature, geography and philosophy in September.

ACTS with the X factor came to town for a free concert for Haverhill residents.

The second of a two-performance series took place on August 17 in the town's market square.

Popular hits from Girls Aloud, Take That and One Direction were brought to the stage for a night of popstastic fun that made the summer.

The crowd were treated to spot-on renditions of the bands' smash hit singles from tribute acts Girls Alouder, Fake That and Only 1 Direction.

Town clerk Will Austin said: "We estimate that some 3,000 people attended the second of these increasingly popular events in our annual calendar, making a total well in excess of 5,000 across the two evenings."

"The town council is delighted that the town turned out in such large numbers to enjoy tributes to One Direction, Girls Aloud and Take That – we offer our thanks to the residents of Haverhill for making it such a fun evening, and for their support. If the crowd reaction on the night is anything to go by, these free events will be an essential part of next year's summer programme."

The other tribute night concert took place on August 3 and featured music from Liverpool's finest.

The Mersey Makers brought the best songs from The Beatles, The Searchers, Gerry and the Pacemakers, The Merseybeats, The Swinging Blue Jeans and Billy J Kramer.

Children to get fit

PARENTS need to take steps to encourage their children to exercise more, Live Well Suffolk insists.

A survey has revealed that only 51 per cent of Suffolk children are getting their daily exercise.

An hour a day is recommended, whether that's through riding their bike, walking the dog or even flying a kite.

Live Well Suffolk have made it a mission to help children get on their feet by publishing an exercise diary for parents to take ideas from.

The six-week programme can be downloaded for free from liwellsuffolk.org.uk

Steven Lee-Foster, Director of Live Well Suffolk, said: "Clearly these are very worrying statistics. Children who are fit and active from a young age are more likely to remain active as they grow older."

Volunteer travel groups join forces

PROVIDING transport for those who struggle to get to medical appointments, go shopping and pay bills is a vital service.

Two groups who do exactly that – and serve more than 70 towns and parishes across Suffolk, Essex and Cambridgeshire – have formed a partnership to improve their services even further.

Three Counties Transport has served Haverhill and the surrounding villages for 12 years.

The organisation is supported by a tight-knit team of volunteer drivers who use their own cars to provide transport for individuals and groups.

A pick-up and drop-off service is also run by the volunteers, who take people from home to a specific location and bring them back again.

DEBRA FOX

Three Counties also hire out accessible mini buses to cater for those who want to travel together.

The Haverhill-based group has joined forces with The Voluntary Network, which provides for Forest Health, including Newmarket, Thetford, Mildenhall and Brandon.

The groups took the decision to share their budget and resources to ensure they are providing the best service possible – and avoiding overlap.

Voluntary Network manager Caroline Cowie said that both organisations will keep their separate identities and there will be no disruption to the current services which provide for those in need.

She said: "The services we offer are a life line to hundreds of local people including some of the most vulnerable members of our communities such as the elderly, those with impaired mobility, people with disabilities and the unemployed."

"We hope by pooling our resources we can improve our services and as a result improve the quality of life of many, many people."

Call Lyn Burgess on 01440 712028 for more information about Three Counties and 01638 608022 to contact the Voluntary Network.

Four weeks left to enter poetry contest

THERE is less than four weeks left to enter the RSPB's second annual poetry competition and the interest so far has come from all around the globe. Europe's largest conservation charity has been encouraging nature lovers and budding poets to wax lyrical about wildlife, enthuse about the environment and gush about green spaces in response to the competition theme, 'Nature Poetry'. And the RSPB has been overwhelmed with how far some entries have come in from. So far, poems have been written in the US, Australia, Canada, New Zealand, South Africa, Italy, France, Spain and Finland and have all been inspired by nature in some way. Matthew Howard, RSPB Community Fundraiser said the competition was a real first for the RSPB. It is being run in partnership with award-winning poetry publisher, The Rialto, which itself is a real privilege. And we are thrilled to have Ruth Padel as our judge. But, we didn't anticipate such a level of global interest. It's wonderful to read poems about how much nature has moved people. It certainly goes to show how much our planet is a rich natural well of inspiration. There is still time for entries to be submitted though. The closing date is September 30 and there are some great prizes on offer. Whether you are a professional writer, a keen amateur or are new to writing, we'd love to hear from you. "And as with the old adage 'the pen is mightier than the sword', this competition will help us to continue in our battle to save nature by raising funds for crucial conservation work nationally and abroad." Entrants have the chance to win cash prizes, publication in The Rialto and a place on a Creative EXHIBITION: The display was opened on August 22 and ran over the bank holiday weekend.

A celebration of the town's history
MORE than 200 people celebrated the local history of their town by attending an exhibition over the bank holiday weekend. The Haverhill and District Local History Group proudly opened their Hail! Haverhill, Hail! display on August 22 at the town's Arts Centre. The group members worked hard to bring together 150 objects to celebrate the past, present and possible future of the town. Jed Howlett, Collections on Show Project Officer for the group, said: "Everyone seemed to have really positive feedback about the exhibition and had good things to say about the work the history group were doing. "There is a lot of work that goes on behind the scenes – and it took two months to prepare for two days." Visitors also learned about the group's work on a day to day basis. Go to www.haverhillhd.onesuffolk.net for more on the group and visit their room in the Arts Centre between 2-4pm on Thursdays and Fridays and 10.30am-3.30pm on Saturdays.

LUCKY TO BE ALIVE:

Teen freerunner celebrating life

ABROKEN neck has not stopped this teenager from living his life.

Seventeen-year-old Callum Jefferson lost his footing while freerunning up a tree in September last year.

Despite spending six months in hospital and being paralysed from the chest down, Callum is determined to get the most out of every day.

Callum, of Colbeck Road, Haverhill, insists he is "still Callum, but shorter and faster" because he's on wheels.

Mum Mandy, 49, says her son is an inspiration.

She said: "At the hospital the only time he complained was when the telly broke because he was lying flat on his back.

"I will take my hat off to him – I know he's my son, but he's been brilliant."

September 15, 2012, is a day Callum and his family will remember forever.

Callum had been freerunning for four years when his foot slipped on a tree and he somer-saulted to the ground near Haverhill library.

DEBRA FOX

After waiting more than an hour for an ambulance, Callum was taken to Addenbrooke's. He spent two months in their care before being transferred to Stoke Mandeville for four months.

His neck was repaired with a metal plate and a bone graft and the family remain hopeful that further improvements will come in the future.

Mandy said: "It's not necessarily a happy ending because he's not walking, but he has got movement in his legs. And his age is a good sign."

Callum, who has recently been on an activity week with The Back Up Trust doing horse riding, abseiling and rock climbing, says his injuries are not as bad as people think.

He said: "Everyone thinks it is worse than it is. I don't see much reason to get down about the accident - if you keep a positive attitude then everything is fine."

After breaking his neck, Callum said he felt lucky to be alive. While he was still in hospital he proposed to his girlfriend Sian North, also 17.

He said: "Being that close to dying I didn't want to be left as being just her boyfriend after four years together. I wanted to make more of a commitment."

Positivity is not going to help the family get through everything. They are currently trying to raise £37,000 for an extension to their house, which will give Callum a lift and his own room.

His bedroom is currently in the living room downstairs.

Mandy and her partner Paul Woodley, 42, have organised an Elvis Tribute Night for September 7 at The Tavern, Birdbrook, in the hope they can raise the remaining £6,000.

Tickets cost £10 each and the event is on from 7.30pm until midnight.

Call Mandy on 01440 708938 for more.

Police hunt men after attempted robbery

TWO men are being hunted by police after trying to rob a 17-year-old boy.

The boy was crossing the footbridge behind the Waters Edge flats on Withersfield Road, Haverhill, when he was approached by two men.

The first man distracted the boy by asking if he had a lighter and when he turned the second man punched him in the face.

The pair then pushed him to the ground before kicking him and searching his pockets.

They fled towards Tesco after another man saw them.

This happened on Tuesday, August 20, at around 11pm. The boy was near to a footpath beside the old railway track in Watting Road.

Police are keen to speak to the man who helped the 17-year-old.

He is described as white, aged around 30 years of age, 6ft tall, and of a large muscular build.

He also has short spiky hair and tattoos on his right shoulder.

Officers are also trying to track down two men who were working on faulty street lights along the footpath.

Anyone with information about this incident is asked to contact the Bury St Edmunds Priority Crime Team on 101. You can also call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Badger cull 'is not the answer'

DEBRA FOX

BADGER culling has started in a bid to stop the spread of bovine TB.

But the question is whether or not shooting thousands of the animals is the best way for farmers to save their cattle.

The disease is most commonly hosted by cattle and buffalo but badgers, rats, and deer can be carriers.

Infected animals spread the disease through their breath – so other animals can catch it by picking up droplets spread by coughing.

After years of fierce opposition between farmers and animal rights campaigners, the culling started this week in Gloucestershire and Somerset.

The two counties are being used as pilot schemes.

Audrey Boyle of Suffolk Wildlife Trust says: "It is a sad day for the natural world. We deeply regret that badger culls are proceeding despite the strength of scientific and public opinion against them.

"Although we are not affected in East Anglia, we are very conscious of the hardship that bovine TB causes farmers in the West Country.

"However science clearly shows that a badger cull is not the solution to bovine TB and, in fact, the shooting of badgers could make the problem worse. This cull is a distraction and gets in the way of implementing the right mechanisms to control this disease through improved biosecurity and the roll out of cattle and badger vaccines – a view shared by many landowners in Somerset where the trial culls are now going ahead." James Wood, a professor of equine and farm animal science at Cambridge University, said that the culling will only become effective in areas where badgers have spread the disease to start with.

Sophie Kennerley, from Animal Rights Cambridge, said the majority of Cambridgeshire people are against killing the animals.

Instead, a new focus should be put onto vaccinating cattle against becoming infected, she said.

Enjoying the sun at Parkway's day of fun

DEBRA FOX

A BALLOONIST, a bucking bronco and a bouncy castle were among the attractions at a fun day at Haverhill Rugby Club.

The Parkway fun day took place on Wednesday, August 21, from 11am until 3pm, and provided a fun afternoon for children and parents together.

While the little ones tired themselves out with the exciting activities, mum and dad could settle down with a picnic and take in the atmosphere.

Chairman of the association Stuart Summers said: "It was absolutely brilliant. We couldn't have asked for better weather – we were so lucky."

More than 1,400 people showed up on the day, causing queues for all the rides – but this didn't even dampen the fun.

Stuart said: "The kids enjoyed the balloonist and all the other entertainment and the raffle went down well too."

The highlight of the day came when the Parkway Residents' Association presented Little Legends under-eights football team with their new kit for the season.

Little Legends are looking for members to play in the Cambridgeshire Mini Soccer League in their under 11 squad.

Stuart explained that the association has supported the team before.

He said: "They absolutely loved it. We have been sorting out the kit for a month and they are really pleased."

The team is trained by UEFA B qualified coach Darren White, who holds sessions at Burton End School on Tuesdays at 6pm and Saturdays at 10.30am.

Call Darren, who also coaches Norwich youth team, on 07968 321953.

To find out more or to join the association find Parkway Residents' Association on Facebook.

DRIVING SEAT: Vauxhall want to help motorists make savings.

Drivers can reap new rewards

A NEW rewards scheme has been introduced for drivers in Haverhill.

Local dealership Drive Vauxhall, on Duddery Hill, have started the programme in a bid to make driving more affordable.

They have launched a Vauxhall Rewards Pre-Pay Debit Card and Vauxhall Rewards Capital One Credit Card which will build up savings on every day purchases.

Sarah Ferrari, Market Area General Manager at Drive Vauxhall, said the idea has come from helping with the every day costs of running a car.

DEBRA FOX

She said: "We understand how important it is for motorists to manage the costs associated with buying and maintaining their car or van; the new Vauxhall Rewards programme is just one way in which our customers can make significant savings and reap benefits from their every-day spending."

Customers will earn reward points from all purchases on the credit card and in turn each reward point gained earns a £1 discount off a new Vauxhall up to a maximum of £1,500.

The debit card allows users to rack up points for every pound they spend, and these points are redeemable for Vauxhall servicing, repairs and accessories - or can even be put towards a new car.

Call 01440 703606 or go online to www.drivevauxhall.co.uk for more about the local dealership's offers.

Visit www.vxrewards.co.uk to find out more about the Vauxhall Rewards Programme or call 0800 072 2242.

Business challenge raises hospice funds

HAVING a flutter at the casino has raised more than £850 for hospice care.

A casino night, organised by Jacobs Allen Chartered Accountants & Chartered Tax Advisors and thebestofHaverhill, was held at Haverhill golf club as part of a competition between West Suffolk businesses.

The Towergate Accumulator Challenges encourages businesses to compete with each other to raise the most money for St Nicholas Hospice Care.

Jacobs Allen took the crown last year raising £9477 for the hospice through a variety of events and fundraisers.

Their casino night, held on August 16, raised £860.50.

Director Paul Donno said this was the fourth year the business have joined forces with thebestofHaverhill for a fundraiser.

He said: "Although numbers were down on previous years the generosity of our guests ensured that we raised a decent amount for the charity."

"I would like to thank all those people who supported the event by providing prizes for our mini auction and raffle; making donations; buying tickets and getting into the spirit of the event on the night by buying raffle tickets and playing the roulette and black jack tables."

The gaming tables and croupiers were provided by Circuit Entertainments and owner Eric Armstrong amazed guests with his card tricks.

Elaine Carr, owner of thebestofHaverhill, said: "Haverhill Golf Club provided a lovely venue for the event and many of our guests enjoyed a drink on the patio during the early part of the evening."

"The evening went really well and we were really pleased with the amount raised for the hospice."

Talking business

A focus on Haverhill's commercial community with Robin Pilley of Great summer: but very busy!

I HOPE you are enjoying the weather we are experiencing. This is always a difficult time for businesses as activity reduces during the holiday season yet we still have to maintain customer service levels whilst key members of staff are away enjoying their well earned breaks. I am sure readers have noticed it has been a busy time for us here at CXG as we have acquired and are re-developing the White Hart premises. Look out for news

Robin Pilley chats to Haverhill photographer David Doughty, who was also the main player in the organisation of the highly successful inaugural Summer Bash in July coming soon! This month my featured business interview is with David Doughty, a local photographer who has taken many pictures for the local population including our own business photographs.

The old saying 'the camera never lies' may be true but I am sure you will agree David seems to be able to bring out the best in all his subjects. Enjoy his perspective on business life!

'I turned a hobby into a business: Life is too short and I never let an opportunity go by ...'

When did you start your business?
2001

What is your business?
Photography & Video Services

What were your reasons and motivation?

To turn a hobby into a job, life is too short and I never let an opportunity go by.

What differentiates you from your competitors?

To provide the best service for the customer for a fair price and to keep trying new ideas.

What methods did you use to make people aware of the service you provide?

Advertising, promoting at events, Facebook and the best of all – word of mouth.

Do you have a favourite picture from all you have taken?

I have a favourite from each type of photography that I have done; a male African lion, a black and white of a baby with a teddy bear, a girl in a red dress, a lorry in a warehouse... now I come to think of it they are usually the first images of that category that I was able to be pleased with... the others that followed may have been technically better but I guess they remain in my mind because they were the 1st.

What has been your greatest achievement?

BEST SERVICE: David Doughty outside his business

To still be doing what I love through a very tough economic climate – which I am extremely grateful to various staff, family, friends and customers who have supported me over the years.

What is the funniest request you have had from a client?

To take photos of a man in full frogman's outfit for a pen friend he had in Europe. We both had a laugh doing that one! Even though this was a little unusual I have respect for any customer paying me to do my job and I am not surprised by anything any more.

Do you get many requests for risqué photographs?

All the time but I don't do topless since I lost my figure!

What five top tips would you give our readers to help them set up and run a successful business?

1. Know your subject inside out and keep learning.
2. Keep looking for the next thing – nothing ever stays the same so don't go stale.
3. Learn from your mistakes and listen to advice – you don't have to act on it all but other people have experience that is very valuable.
4. Find the right staff and quality suppliers.
5. There is always a solution to a problem.

Spot the difference.

The home of low prices

GJ Hunt will floor you with options

HAVERHILL firm GJ Hunt Flooring have long been favourites for locals looking for new carpets or other flooring for their homes.

The family company, in which husband and wife team Gavin and Philipa Hunt are joined by Gavin's uncle and mother, have been in the town for more than 10 years, although Gavin has been involved in the carpet industry for more than 20 years, having first been trained by his own father.

Having started out as a one-man (and a van) business, Gavin first started selling carpets and offcuts from a small industrial unit on

ADVERTISING FEATURE

Sundays, then progressed to a market stall which he ran on Saturdays for six years. Three years ago he opened the shop where the business remains to this day, opening six days a week and offering a friendly, straightforward and convenient service for Haverhill customers.

But now the company is branching out. As you will see on your next visit to its large showroom, it has recently started stocking a beautiful range of unique furniture. All items, from coffee tables to wine racks to chest of drawers, are hand-made in Rajasthan, India from shisham wood, and are supplied by another Haverhill business: sticking with GJ Hunt's ethos of supporting local enterprise.

It's an outlook that has proved popular, with the trusted company having seen customers return for repeat orders of flooring over the years. This is all thanks to the team's helpful personal service. From browsing a selection of flooring in the shop, you can then arrange for a no-obligation, free-of-charge home visit so that you can get measured up and make sure that the style and colour that you have selected still looks right in situ. From there they will give you a quotation for the work that is sure to be good value for money. As Gavin Hunt explains, rather than gimmicky "special deals", GJ Hunt Flooring prides itself on offering "permanently fair prices all year round", adding: "whenever a customer comes to us they will always get a fair price". Add in excellent quality of flooring, and great service, and you've got the ideal solution.

Acclaimed work comes to Haverhill

A NEW drama fresh from Edinburgh Fringe is coming to Haverhill as part of its tour.

We Will Be Free is a story centered around the Tolpuddle Martyrs – a group of agricultural labourers from Dorset.

The play is set in 1834 and follows the true and moving story of George Loveless, a methodist preacher and leader of farm labourers, and his wife Betsy.

The couple are played by Neil Gore and Elizabeth Eves.

An excellent cast, moving music and good direction make for a story and night no one will forget.

The show is taking place on September 25 from 7.30pm.

Tickets for We Will Be Free are £10 for adults, £8 for concessions and £6 for under 16s.

You can book at the Haverhill Arts Centre Box Office by calling 01440 714140.

Warning against hoax cold calls

WARNINGS have been issued about a scam where fraudsters have tried to extort money by pretending to be from the county council.

The telephone scam has hit residents across Suffolk where they are offered cash prizes by a caller claiming to be from 'Suffolk Council' in exchange for filling out a spending survey.

Residents are then asked a series of personal and financial questions by the caller.

Cllr Colin Spence, cabinet member for public protection at Suffolk County Council, said: "A call from 'Suffolk Council' asking residents to answer any personal or financial details should immediately set alarm bells ringing.

"It is vital that anyone who has received a cold call of this nature

Interns say goodbye and graduate from council

WEEKS of hard work and dedication paid off for a group of interns.

Suffolk County Council celebrated the success of their first internship programme – which aimed to improve the job prospects of young people in the county.

The group worked for 12 weeks throughout their summer break to improve their workplace skills.

Meeting deadlines, prioritising and working alone and in a group were all included in the syllabus.

The Raising the Bar graduation took place on August 23. The scheme was launched in 2012.

Councillor Mark Bee, leader of Suffolk County Council, opened the ceremony and congratulated the participants on their success.

He said: "I would like to congratulate all those that have been working for us during the intern programme this summer.

"They have brought fresh ideas and new insights which have really added value to our workplace."

Learning about leopards at Linton Zoo

ANIMAL lovers were given the chance to get up close and personal with beautiful snow leopards.
Linton Zoo held a special event over the bank holiday, which included a talk from Dr Koustubh Sharma, Senior Regional Ecologist for The Snow Leopard Trust.

Tickets were £15 and they included entry to the zoo from 10am.
The event started at tea time for the leopards, and guests were treated to tea and cakes after a presentation about the charity.
The zoo has raised 1,000 US dollars for the charity thanks to visitors sponsoring their snow leopards Lhamo and Centurio.

The event also gave sponsors an insight into how their kind donations help the animals.

BIG names including Bill Bryson, Rick Stein and Jennifer Saunders have been announced for Topping and Company Booksellers' autumn Ely Literary Festival.

Last year saw the first Ely Literary Festival which involved three months of talks, lunches, afternoon teas and writers groups all dedicated to celebrating books, their writers and their readers. The line-up ranged from Sir Terry Pratchett to Hilary Mantel, and Nigella Lawson to P D James.

Building on last year's success, the bookshop will launch 2013's festival at the beginning of September and it will run through to December.

The programme will feature the literary likes of Jennifer Saunders, Bill Bryson, Rick Stein, Penelope Lively, Louis de Bernieres and Margaret Drabble; plus A C Grayling, Kate Adie and Oz Clarke.

Set to be hosted across Ely, from Ely Cathedral to the more intimate St Peters Church and Ely Library, the Cambridge Corn Exchange will also host Jennifer Saunders who will discuss her new autobiography Bonkers.

Cinema outdoors

THE Cambridge Film Trust and Cambridge Film Festival have joined forces to host a range of outdoor summer screenings for all ages – whether you're a hardcore cinephile or just quite a big fan of Pixar. Here's the line-up:

● At the pub: The Red Lion, Whittlesford Bridge

Skitter about New York (in your mind) with Woody Allen and Diane Keaton in Annie Hall (September 6).

● At the races: Jockey Rooms, Newmarket

Ben Affleck acts and directs his heart out in Argo, a thriller about the Iran hostage crisis, complete with a spot of fake-film subterfuge (August 29), Quartet stars Maggie Smith as a talented but crotchety retired opera singer (August 30) and Daniel Craig has us all swooning (and weeping) in his third stint as Bond, James Bond in Skyfall (August 31).

● By the pool: Jesus Green Lido, Cambridge

Finding Nemo: September 15

A clown fish called Marlin teams up with a forgetful Pacific regal blue tang called Dory to find his son Nemo. But you know the story right? Chock-full of laid back turtles, vegetarian sharks and crazily coloured jelly fish, it's just perfect Pixar.

film of the week

ONE DIRECTION: THIS IS US 3D certificate PG, 1h32m

DIRECTED by Morgan Spurlock of Supersize Me fame, this is the story of five young men – Niall Horan, Zayn Malik, Liam Payne, Harry Styles and Louis Tomlinson – and their meteoric rise to fame.

Except, sadly, this is not their full story. There's footage of the boys performing on stage, winding down post-show on the tour bus and relaxing in their hotel rooms.

We also occasionally see the boys exploring the cities that they fleetingly visit when they are able. During one trip they are spotted by a group of fans and have to be locked in a shop, protected from the mass of hysterical girls.

Indeed, the fans feature heavily in Spurlock's film as they have done in the boys' careers. Never has the phrase 'we wouldn't be here without you' rung so true.

One Direction fans can be obsessive, although they prefer the word dedicated. Statistics shows that four million people in the UK call themselves Directioners – these are the uber-fans who endlessly tweet about the boys and spend their spare pennies following the band around.

During the film some of them are asked what it is they love about the boys. The answer? One Direction make them feel happy and they love that they're just normal guys.

And this is a key message of the film, repeated time and time again by the boys and those who know them – One Direction are a regular bunch of lads.

What the film is missing though, is any kind of glimpse into their lives outside the band. No girlfriends are seen or rumours addressed. There's no sex or drugs – or rock n' roll for that matter – and we get the feeling that we're being sold a rose-tinted view of the boys' lives which is hardly surprising given that Simon Cowell is a producer

Measure for Measure

TECHNICALLY a comedy, Shakespeare's Measure for Measure is more of a problem play than a laugh-out-loud funny piece. Still, this production, by Cambridge American Stage Tour (CAST), slyly takes the citizens of Vienna – overrun by shadiness and the sex trade – and gives it a modern gloss.

The law is being ignored, Duke Vincentio goes undercover and the spiteful Angelo brutally takes control (fear and oppression his erstwhile tools). However, as he wrangles with the city, Angelo accidentally falls for the enchanting Isabella – sister of imprisoned Claudio – and suddenly it seems the rules no longer apply to him...

A hot-footing play laden with political corruption, abuse of power and brazen deceit – while moral insalubriousness abounds – you'll see more than a few parallels with our own law enforcers today (not to get too doom and gloom on you).

If you can't see it at the ADC, it's also on at Ely Cathedral on Monday, September 2, at 7.45pm before returning to the ADC post-America for a full run on Tuesday, October 8.

● Measure for Measure, The ADC Theatre, Wednesday, September 4 at 7.45pm. Tickets £10 from (01223) 300085 / www.adctheatre.com.

Action in the autumn

IT'S time to ease yourself out of the deckchair and put on your gardening gloves because autumn is almost upon us, and with it, a plethora of tasks to wake you from your summer slumber.

There's a host of jobs to do to get ahead this autumn, so make the most of the last warm days by perking up your plants, then enjoy the season change as the leaves turn from green to brilliant shades of warm yellow, burnt orange and burgundy.

Here's just a few of the tasks you could be doing to get a head start:

■ Patio Plants

When your summer bedding is past its best and beyond reviving, chuck it out and treat yourself to a fresh batch of winter-flowering pansies, evergreens and shrubs including autumn heather, Skimmia japonica 'Rubella' and variegated ivy to drape over the sides. Plant bulbs such as dwarf narcissi underneath. Spring-flowering bulbs in pots combine well with winter bedding plants such as pansies, evergreens, grasses and heathers. Group taller bulbs in the centre of the pot and use seasonal bedding nearer the sides.

■ Boost your lawn

by Hannah Stephenson

Autumn is a great time to sow a new lawn, when the ground is still warm and there is likely to be some rain. You should have prepared the soil the previous season, making sure it has been well firmed and settled before levelling. Mark out your area and sow the seed evenly, scattering it in both directions before raking it into the soil surface. If it doesn't rain, water the seed well and keep the soil moist until the grass starts to appear. Net the area or put up a scarecrow to keep birds away.

If you have bare patches, mow the lawn, rake the surface to remove debris then spread seed over the sparse areas, sweeping it into the surface, before covering it with a fine layer of compost and watering it in.

■ Order bulbs

You should be ordering your spring bulbs now, some of which can be planted as early as August. Among the first spring bulbs for planting are narcissi, both in the border and in containers. Others for planting in early autumn include muscari, crocus, iris and hyacinth.

■ Sow seeds

You don't have to just sow seeds in spring, because a range of flowers and veg can be sown in autumn to give a longer harvesting time or simply to have a better start after overwintering. Salads can be sown through to mid-September for overwintering, some lettuces will reach a size which is perfect for picking before the cold slows down growth. Use clothes to cover those to be left in the ground a bit longer. Baby spinach leaves and corn salad are worth sowing if you can cover them later, as are several types of overwintering lettuce. Sow overwintering onions in vacant rows in the veg plot and transplant in October. You can also sow some hardy annuals in late summer – Chiltern Seeds (www.chilternseeds.co.uk, (01491) 824675) is now offering a number of new varieties including Centaurea americana 'Aloha Blanca', pictured, which is robust and tall growing, bearing beautiful, fluffy, ivory-white flowers six inches across.

■ De-clutter shed

Now's the time to clear out those cracked and broken pots, rusty tools and snapped bamboo canes. Disinfect and neatly pile seed trays which won't be used until next year and give your hand tools a good clean, wiping blades over with an oily rag before prolonged storage.

Land Rover hybrid SUV goes into production

LAND Rover has released details of its first production hybrid SUVs – pictured above – which will be capable of 44mpg and be rated at 169g/km of CO₂.

The figures, shared across the Range Rover Hybrid and Range Rover Sport Hybrid, are a significant improvement on the standard diesel drive-train's 37.7mpg and 196g/km in the latest Range Rover, but the firm claims that the new system offers performance on a par with the exceptional SDV8 models.

Power is put to the road through an eight-speed ZF gearbox. The entire hybrid system weighs 120kg, making it relatively lightweight for its type. It produces 125lb.ft of torque to add to the engine's output and can even power the car independently.

RANGE ROVER:
Hybrid option.

Using a driver-selectable EV mode, the Range Rover Hybrids will be able to drive at up to 30mph on electric power only for a range of up to a mile.

As such the hybrid system is designed only as a supplement to reduce load on the engine, reducing fuel consumption by making life easier for the diesel V6.

The drivetrain's combined output is 336bhp and 516lb.ft, the latter coming between 1,500rpm and 3,000rpm. Both models will accelerate to 62mph in less than seven seconds, while top speed is 135mph, or 140mph for the Sport.

The latest generation models were designed with the integration of a hybrid system in mind. The liquid-cooled battery pack is mounted beneath the floor of the vehicle in a protective boron-steel cradle without impacting on the cabin or luggage space.

The larger vehicle has the same five-seat capacity and luggage space as the standard Range Rover and retains the full-size spare wheel, and the Range Rover Sport Hybrid's 5+2 layout is also unchanged.

QUICK: Golf R gets to 60mph in 4.9 seconds.

New Golf R is niftier still

THE new Volkswagen Golf R will be able to sprint to 62mph in an unprecedented 4.9 seconds.

This astonishing pace, which comes when the Golf R is specified with a twin-clutch auto DSG gearbox, makes it as fast away from the lights as older sports cars like the Ferrari 355, the 4.0-litre TVR Cerbera and the Caterham 7 R300.

With a manual gearbox the incredibly quick family hatchback is 0.4 seconds slower to hit the acceleration benchmark, but shares the same 155mph electronically limited top speed. It puts its 296bhp – the most for any production Golf in history – down to the road through a fifth-generation part-time four-wheel drive system that hooks up under high power.

Under the bonnet is the EA888 2.0-litre turbocharged petrol engine from the GTI, with mods to the cylinder head, exhaust valves, valve seats and springs, pistons, injection valves and turbocharger.

The car will star on the Volkswagen stand at the Frankfurt Motor Show next month, with a UK on-sale date to be confirmed after that time.

Junior Bentley motors to championship title

DANIEL Bentley shot an impressive gross 74 to win the CAB Edwards Junior Club Championship at Haverhill Golf Club.

With an earlier score of 77, the talented youngster won the event by just one shot.

Lewis Whiting was second with 152 following rounds of 70 and 82, while Mitchell Davis was third with rounds of 80 and 85 totalling 165.

In the handicap competition, Billy Bush was a runaway winner, posting a nett score of 123 thanks to rounds of 60 and 63.

Bentley had to settle for runner-up spot with rounds of 69 and 66 totalling 135 while third place went to 10-year-old Joshua Hulyer with 137 following rounds of 75 and 62.

Hulyer had even more reason to celebrate when he scored a hole in one on the par three, 172-yard, 16th hole during the afternoon round. Hulyer, who used a seven wood for the ace, saw his handicap reduced by three shots to 19.

Junior girls' captain Nicole Pike returned the best nett score for the girls with 143.

■ The men's IFF Challenge saw 82 players enjoy perfect conditions, a fact reflected in some of the scores.

Haverhill junior Ollie Stevenson was the winner with an excellent score of 41 points and his handicap was reduced by a shot to eight.

Full results: Division One: 1 Ollie Stevenson 41pts, 2 Bob Spittle 39, 3 Steve Miller 37; Division Two: 1 Ollie Fish 41, 2 Norman White 40, 3 John Carr 39; Division Three: 1 Peter Jennings 38, 2 Patrick Bowes 35ocb, 3 Kelvin Ellam 35.

■ The men's combined August medal and R Woolmer Greens Trophy was contested, with Paul Bartlett emerging as overall winner.

The competition attracted 91 golfers with a handicap limit of 18 for the R Woolmer Greens Trophy.

Results: Division One: 1 Paul Bartlett (70-6=64), 2 Gerry Scott (72-6=66), 3 Eamonn Bareham (74-7=67ocb); Division Two: 1 Aaron Tokley (78-13=65), 2 Ollie Fish (79-13=66), 3 Tom Daniels (87-19=68); Division Three: 1 Paul Chapman (92-27=65), 2 Conor O'Brien (90-22=68ocb), 3 John Vale (94-26=68).

■ Haverhill Ladies contested their semi-final match of the Cranworth against Woodbridge at Newton Green.

Haverhill lead after the foursomes but Woodbridge hit back in the singles and won 5.5-3.5.

■ Haverhill Ladies challenged the club's juniors to a friendly for the Challenge Trophy.

The annual fixture was well contested with the juniors emerging triumphant after winning two and drawing two of the matches.

DAN Cornwell was on target as Haverhill Rovers drew 1-1 at Diss in the Premier Division.

The hosts went ahead before Cornwell smashed the ball into the bottom corner after Ben Robinson's initial shot was saved by the keeper, but Cornwell fluffed several chances to net a winner for Rovers.

Manager Dean Greycorse said: "I'm very disappointed we didn't get all three points.

"It was a very even first half, but we changed things in the second half and looked a far better team.

"We totally dominated the last 20 minutes and it's very frustrating because we'd have gone top of the league if we'd won."

Injuries to Ryan Geoghegan, Callum Harrison and Harry Halls hindered Haverhill Borough in a 2-0 defeat at home to Whitton in Division One.

Centre-back Geoghegan suffered a hamstring strain in the warm-up, but Borough started the game brightly, and created the first real chance when Shaun Avis chased down a long ball and fed Luke Strutton, who shot wide.

On the half-hour, the hosts suffered their second injury setback when Harrison limped off with a groin problem and things got worse two minutes later as a Whitton cross from the right was headed in.

Cornwell earns a point for Rovers

Borough created early chances in the second half with Ryan Weaver mis-hitting a fine cross from Owen Longley in the 51st minute before exacting a fine save from the Whitton keeper six minutes later as he skipped thought the defence.

A Jon Welsh free kick in the 61st minute brought Borough's next opportunity, but his powerful cross evaded everyone, with Harry O'Connor and Halls just missing out at the far post.

With seven minutes left, a mis-hit cross from Weaver lobbed the Whitton keeper but hit the crossbar.

As the game entered additional time, Whitton secured all three points with a shot being deflected in by Tom Bradlaugh after Liam Cutts had parried an initial powerful strike.

But in trying to block the follow-up, O'Connor and Halls had clashed resulting in the latter subsequently being treated for a dislocated shoulder.

Borough left it late but they eventually beat Cornard United 2-1 on Tuesday night.

Hosts Cornard took a surprise lead in the first half and they held on to it until half time.

After some stern words from manager Ben Cowling, Haverhill came out strongly in the second half and they equalised with a penalty from Ryan Weaver. Then with just four minutes left, Weaver netted again to snatch a late victory.

Haverhill ladies dig deep for win

HAVERHILL Tennis Club's ladies' team enjoyed a fine 5-3 win over Exning in a Norfolk & Suffolk League match.

The match proved to be a hard fought encounter with many of the games going to deuce.

But in the end it was the Haverhill team of Marcia Armstrong, Rachel Jeffs, Danielle Miller and Shannon Tobin who held their nerve to clinch a narrow victory.

Tobin's role in the match was particularly crucial thanks to her hard driving forehand winners.
